

PRESS RELEASE

DATE: 17 NOVEMBER, 2008

SUBJECT: ART ROYALE

Local Cape Coral Businessman To Be Featured In This Weekend's Art Royale

Dave Thomas, Art Director of Random Art House, will be one of the featured artists in this weekend's Art Royale held at the Alliance of the Arts in Fort Myers. The event starts on November 22 at 6:30PM and is located at 10091 McGregor Blvd.

Digital art and local photographs featuring the sights of Cape Coral, Matlacha, Sanibel and Captiva Islands from Dave Thomas's unique perspective will be on exhibit. Called "The Random Art Experience," his printed artwork is meant to be appreciated with the accompaniment of music to visual animations that bring the static artwork to life in a multi-sensual production piece that merges sound, motion, and light with static, thought provoking art.

More of his artwork is also available for viewing online at www.randomarthouse.com under "Gallery". Online artwork can be ordered at different sizes and on different materials such as canvas or as posters. This unique art not only makes excellent gifts, it can accentuate home decor. You can also upload your own artwork and get it printed and delivered any where in the world and is all printed and manufactured in Cape Coral.

All artwork is output in high resolution, fade-resistant solvent inks on archival-quality materials.

Random Art House is a proud, local Cape Coral advertising agency and its team members and families wish Dave all the best this weekend. For more information, please call Random Art House at (239) 242-8485 or visit www.randomarthouse.com.
