DATE: 1 JANUARY 2008

SUBJECT: RANDOM ART GALLERY

Random Art Gallery Opens in Downtown Cape Coral

Random Art House, a local advertising agency, has officially opened its Random Art Gallery on the second floor of 4635 Coronado Pkwy across from the Ferrari Gallery in Cape Coral. This unique art gallery is open to the public by appointment and features digital and photographic artwork by its art director, Dave Thomas. All art is available for purchase as limited edition enlargements on canvas and posters. The Random Art Gallery is unique because its artwork also comes to life through video and music.

“At our gallery, the art isn’t just viewed, it’s experienced like no other art gallery you’ve probably visited before. We can convert any space or add value to almost any event by offering a unique and memorable experience to people -- all through art. We’re especially excited about converting local, boring lobbies or hallways in the area into an art experience that expresses and captures each organization’s values and character with customized and personal art design and photography which we produce in-house. There is beauty in so many every day things, even on a factory floor, that we can turn into eye-catching art.” Says Random manager, Aaron Belchamber.

More information about the Random Art Gallery can be found during its weekly TV show which airs on Comcast 14 every Thursday at 8:30pm and Sunday at 1:00am, or on its website at www.randomarthouse.com/rae. Random Art House is headquartered at 1010 NE 9th St, Suite C in Cape Coral, Florida.
